CONGRATULATIONS!

Volunteers of the Month:

Ruth Perry and Fay Kutrovac

Students of the Month:

Morgan Gray and Destiny Cook

Busy in Benwood

Volunteer, Chris Mitsch worked with student, Justin Cunningham, and taught him a little bit about yoga. She also brought a craft in for the students to make Mother's Day presents for their moms. Thanks, Miss Chris!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, CHARLIE!

Looks like Charlie got into the icing before he blew out the candle!

Students in Benwood are enjoying the computers. They choose from many different educational, yet fun sites to explore.

They also explored a little Science by making Mentos Geysers. Jacob, Charlie, and Justin set everything up, and it Jacob was caught watching the geyser midstream while Miss Millie and Miss Fay watched from a safe distance!

We also make time for fun and games. Volunteers and students enjoy playing a variety of board and card games together. Miss Millie looks like one of students as she raises her hand and waits for Destiny to call on her.

Busy in Follansbee

Volunteers, Alisha Wells, Kailey Harris, and Ruth Perry with the students worked together to make candy pencils for the students to pass out to the seniors at the center in honor of Senior Corps Week.

VOLUNTEERS STILL NEEDED FOR ASAP

Our enrollment is increasing and we are in need of more volunteers in Follansbee and Benwood. We are open 3PM–6PM on school days and could use your help just one day a week or whenever is convenient for you. If you can help out, call Tonette at 304.905.0673. Thank you!

Students were painting waterfalls with Black Diamond Girl Scout troop leader, Brittaney Stapleton. Volunteers, Violet Corso, Ruth Perry, Zane Gray, Seth Holmes, and VISTA, Alina Hopkins, watch with interest as the students create wonderful masterpieces. “Better than Shakespeare could do!” No, he didn’t paint...rather cute inside joke at the Follansbee site! 😊
